

Kyndra Miller

Attorney

CannaBusiness Law, Inc.

Ms. Miller is President and CEO of CannaBusiness Law, Inc. ("Firm"), a wireless professional law corporation that provides Business Law and Civil Litigation services to cannabis businesses in California.

With locations in Northern and Southern California, the Firm is committed to helping cannabis businesses operate under the new commercial cannabis regulations at the local and state level. The Firm has two divisions handling legal matters in the areas of Corporate Transactions and Civil Litigation.

Ms. Miller is currently the First Vice Chair of the Board of Directors for national NORML (National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws) based in Washington D.C., and one of the founding Board Members of the NORML Women's Alliance. She is also the Chair of the Cannabis Law Section of the Beverly Hills Bar Association. Her passion is fueled by participation in on-the-ground activism and her desire to influence the implementation of rational and fair laws for cannabis businesses and consumers.
